Why did you receive this letter? We are sending this letter to you to explain the withholding requirements and to give you the information you need to explain these requirements to nonresident payees. If your company makes payments to nonresidents of California, California law (Revenue and Taxation Code Section 18662) requires you to withhold and remit income tax payments in certain instances. If you don't withhold and remit, you may have to pay the withholding plus penalties.

What types of income are subject to withholding? Withholding is generally required on payments made to people who don't reside in California but are paid:

- For services performed as an independent contractor in California,
- Rents or royalties on assets such as commercial real estate, wells, mines, and equipment located in California, and
- Distributions from California estates and trusts.

What is the withholding rate? The rate is seven percent of the gross amount of the payment of California source income.

What are the exceptions? No withholding for income or franchise tax purposes is required if any one of the following applies:

1. The payment is for goods.
2. The payment is made to a resident of California, to a corporation that has a permanent place of business or is qualified to do business in California, to a limited liability company (LLC) that has a permanent place of business in California or is registered with the California Secretary of State, or to a partnership that has a permanent place of business in California. IMPORTANT NOTE: If the California resident, qualified corporation, LLC, or partnership is acting as an agent for the nonresident payee, this exception does not apply.
3. The total payments of California source income to the independent contractor are less than $1,501 for the calendar year.
4. The payment is to an organization that is exempt from tax under California or federal law.
5. The payments are compensation from a motor carrier providing transportation in two or more states, subject to Section 11504(b) of the United States Code.
6. The payments are wages paid to employees (wage withholding is administered by the California Employment Development Department).
7. The payment is to a bank or banking association.
8. The payment is to a nonresident corporate director for director services, including attendance at board of directors' meetings.
9. The payee or payer has a written authorization from us (the California Franchise Tax Board) waiving withholding.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
